Dear Friends,

It's cold and windy and raining now, so the dogs are happily sleeping in their cozy crates... my volunteer Laura bought them all new doggie beds for Christmas, which she brought over a couple of days ago, when she was here helping me spray the cats for fleas... the dogs LUV their comfy new beds!

Gotta run... more chores are calling my name. May your holidays be filled with health and happiness, the wealth of wisdom, and so much peace and love!!

Namaste,

Jessica
